Maria MOCARSKI

Eternal rest grant them, Lord

Today we celebrate Sunday of the Good Shepherd when we pray in a special way for vocations to religious life and priesthood from our community. Christ the Good Shepherd continues to lead his people through his Bishops, priests, and deacons, and calls many to follow him in this way. Priestly, diaconal, and religious vocations should be a constant concern in the hearts of God's people throughout the year. The whole Christian community shares the responsibility for fostering vocations. The first step is to live in a full Christian manner. Families with a lively spirit of faith, love and reverence contribute greatly to this work. Spiritually active parishes, where people take a full part, help to promote vocations. You can join the crusade of prayer through daily prayer for vocations to religious life and the priesthood.

Today we celebrate Mother's Day. We thank our mothers for their unconditional love and care. We thank them especially for the gift of life. We wish all mothers good health, happiness, and many of God's graces. May Mary, our Mother, be a source of strength and an example for them of never-ending love and compassion. God bless!
