God, our Father, who loved the world so much that you sent your Son to renew the broken relationship of love with you, we ask you that there would be nobody in our parish who would remain deaf to His Word and resistant to His love and grace. Let the time of the Holy Mission bring each of us the greatest treasure that the world cannot give: peace of conscience to the hearts, love and harmony to the families, unity to the parish, and new blessings to the Church. Holy Spirit, renew us and the face of our parish. Mother of God, embrace us with your protection. Amen.
