THANKSGIVING DAY THANKSGIVING (Monday, October 14th) has been celebrated in Canada since the eighteenth century. However, it had been celebrated by different cultures of the world much earlier. Initially, as an expression of gratitude to God for the harvest and health in the family and then as a form of thanks to the natives who helped the pilgrims survive the first winter in the new American continent. Let us thank God for all the graces He bestows upon us. On Thanksgiving, we send our parishioners best wishes. Let gratitude to God for all that we receive from Him, fills our hearts and enables us to more beautiful life.
