BAPTISM

PASTOR'S REFLECTION

Today is the thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Gospel tells us about Zacchaeus of Jericho. It was one of the richest cities in the country, located in a fertile part of Judea, and it imported many goods, levying high public tributes. In the realities of the Roman occupation, tax collectors were both wealthy and disliked people due to their cooperation with the occupier, but also due to their common dishonesty. The superior of such people is Zacchaeus, a demoralized and extremely wealthy man. Although he was spiritually far from Jesus, he nevertheless wanted to see Him. May listening to God's word help us to see others through the eyes of Jesus.

RENOVATION FUND

Today, the second collection will be collected for the Renovation Fund. We thank everyone for the donations.

REMEMBRANCE OF ALL SOULS

The month of November is a time of prayer for all the dead. In our memory, we recall those who have gone to the Father's house: parents, siblings, relatives, friends, priests and all those whom we have met in our lives and we owe them a debt of gratitude. We do this to pray for them, commanding them to God's Mercy. In addition to our private prayers and ordered Holy Masses, there has been All Souls Remembrance (Wypominki) tradition in the Church since 993. The envelopes for All Souls Remembrance are located in the entrance to the church, and we put them in a special treasury at the main altar. For the deceased mentioned in the All Souls envelopes, 30 Masses are celebrated in November, at the Provincial House of Missionary Oblates.
