THE PASTOR'S REFLECTION

Conversion always has a double dimension. It is a grace given by God, but it must be undertaken by man to be effective. Conversion means turning away from one's sinful past and turning towards God. The Ninevites under the influence of Jonah's admonition took this attitude. In the Gospel, the Lord Jesus also constantly calls for man to direct his life towards God. Jesus' words: "Follow me" also translates as "follow in my footsteps." The brothers Szymon and Andrzej as well as Jan and Jakub accepted the Lord's invitation. Leaving their former life behind, they began to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Following Jesus is a sure path to changing your heart and therefore your life. Encouraged by the liturgy of the word, let us follow the Lord in His footsteps.

Next Sunday, January 28, the second collection will be collected for the Renovation Fund. We thank everyone for the donations.
