THE PASTOR’S REFLECTION

Man uses knots to connect two separate things and to prevent them from being dissolved. It is similar in the case of relationships that God has entrusted to man. God's knot for a woman and a man is the knot of marriage, which connects two people with an indissoluble effect. Today's Gospel recalls the moment when the Pharisees put Jesus to the test in the matter of legal divorce. Jesus, as the Creator of man, sensitizes his listeners to the truth about the natural beginnings of marriage and refers to the first book of the Torah, the Book of Genesis. Moreover, Jesus, as the God-Man, raises the marital knot between a woman and a man to the rank of a sacrament. He does this by the power of his authority, which has united spouses for centuries. During the Liturgy of the Word, let us thank God for the gift of the sacrament of marriage.

INDIGENOUS HEALING
& RECONCILIATION FUND

Today, all parishes in the Archdiocese of Toronto will hold a second collection for the Indigenous Reconciliation Fund. As part of its ongoing commitment to support healing and reconciliation, the Archdiocese of Toronto has committed to providing funds to support programs and initiatives that address the diverse needs of Indigenous people across the country.

OCTOBER THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

We have begun the month of October, the month of the rosary prayer, about which Saint John Paul II said that it had an important place in his spiritual life. The rosary prayer accompanied him in moments of joy and trial, and about which Pope Francis adds that it opens us to God, helps overcome selfishness and brings peace to hearts, families, society and the world..., that it is a prayer that supports us in the struggle with evil. Encouraged by this testimony, let us take the rosary in our hands and pray, entrusting to God the lights and shadows of everyday life and let us reflect on the mysteries of the earthly life of Christ and His Mother. We invite you to a joint the rosary devotion every day in October at 6:30 p.m.

OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY

Tomorrow, Monday is the commemoration of Our Lady of the Rosary, established in memory of the victory of the Christian fleet at Lepanto in 1571, which was obtained through the prayer of the rosary. This makes us realize once again the great power of this prayer, so let us not neglect it, but rather cultivate it diligently. On the day of Our Lady of the Rosary, in our church, Holy Masses at the usual times.

DONATION OR PACKAGE FOR FLOOD VICTIMS

Many parishes and Polish organizations are collecting funds to help our compatriots affected by the flood. In our parish, you can leave a donation for the flood victims in the collection box at the entrance to the church. This is immediate help, but long-term help will also be needed, especially before the coming winter. Caritas Polska sent us a list of necessary items and things for the victims. Polimex very willingly agreed to help again and offered to collect the collected packages and transport them free of charge to Poland and deliver the gifts to the indicated location by Caritas. We ask our compatriots to donate, if possible, the following products and things, according to the list sent by Caritas Polska. For children: school backpacks, notebooks, markers, pens and other things needed for school. For adults: sleeping bags, bedding, duvets, pillows, dishes, footwear, personal hygiene products, etc. All items should be new, or relatively new and clean. Items should be packed in a box, written on the box what is in it, and delivered by Sunday, October 6 to the parish hall of one of the following parishes: St. Casimir in Toronto, St. Maximilian Kolbe in Mississauga, St. Eugene in Brampton, Sacred Heart of Jesus in Kitchener, St. Stanislaus in Hamilton, and St. Anthony in Oakville.
