PASTOR’S REFLECTIONS

This Sunday, throughout the Church, is dedicated to missions. Missionary Week begins. We pray for missions and for missionaries, both religious and lay. We pray that they may effectively fulfill their vocation and bring the Gospel to peoples and nations who have lost faith or have not yet come to know God. This is an opportune time to remind ourselves that the missionary vocation is at the heart of the Church’s life. World Mission Day also reminds us how diverse the Church is, and therefore truly universal. It is a mosaic of cultures, races, languages, and customs. We support this great missionary endeavor in various ways, including today by making donations to the Pontifical Mission Societies.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTION

Today, after Holy Communion, the second collection will be collected for the Evangelization of Nations, also known as World Mission Sunday. This is a global collection for the missionary Church and our opportunity to help Catholic communities in need around the world. Offerings are combined with those of other Catholics around the world and distributed to missions and dioceses. We are called to share our abundant gifts with those who lack the basic means to know, love, and glorify God. Thank you for supporting this important work.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Today, October 18, Father Kazimierz Kozicki celebrates his birthday. We extend our warmest birthday wishes to him and assure him of our prayers. Happy Birthday!

ANNUAL PARISH COUNT

Today and next weekend, the annual parish count is taking place in all churches in the Archdiocese of Toronto. We ask that the gentlemen on the committee conduct the count, as they do every year.

OCTOBER – MONTH OF THE ROSARY

I invite all parishioners to rosary devotions! In her apparitions, Our Lady points to the rosary as a mystical weapon and a tool of God’s victories. As Christians, we do not fight with swords. Our weapon is the rosary. Every day at 6:30 PM in our church, we celebrate the rosary, and after the rosary, evening Mass is celebrated.

PRAYERS FOR THE DECEASED

This Monday marks the National Day of Remembrance for Steadfast Clergy. It was established by the Sejm of the Republic of Poland in 2018. This day is intended to pay tribute to priests and other clergy who, through their actions, exemplified courage and patriotism, and often shed their blood in defense of our homeland.
